

Summer is right around the corner! And what would the season be without camp? This year, there are two unique camps to choose from! Read inside for descriptions of both camps. If you have specific questions, please call 916/484.2044 or send an email to TRS@SacCounty.gov.

If you are interested in signing up, please fill out the Summer Camp Application and return as soon as possible. Do not send money! Please remember that sending in an application does not guarantee acceptance. More information along with payment amount and due dates will be sent upon acceptance. Selected campers will be notified during the month of March.

Camper Requirements:

- * Must be able to enjoy themselves in a 1:6 staff-to-participant ratio.
- * Able to maintain a relatively high energy level for the duration of camp.
- * All participants must have a current Enrollment Form, Liability Waiver and Code of Conduct on file.
- * Appropriate & respectful behavior at all times.

Priority will be given to those who have been overnight successfully with TRS in the past. Any new travelers will be required to come in for an interview and attend TRS programs before acceptance will be considered.

Financial Aid Opportunities:

1. We are in contact with Alta Regional Center to explore funding for this year's camps. If you are an Alta Regional Center client, please talk to your service coordinator to see if you qualify for this opportunity.

2. Pathways to Recreation, Inc. is offering camp financial aid to qualified individuals. Partial financial aid will be available for a portion of the camp price, based on qualification.

Financial aid criteria:

- * Priority will be given to participants who can demonstrate financial need
- * Preference will be given for those who have never attended summer camps with TRS
- * Applicant must meet all camper requirements

How to apply for financial aid:

If you are interested in applying for Pathways financial aid, check the box on the opposite side of this form and return to TRS. An application requesting more information will be sent to you.

Summer Camps options:

Both camps have their own unique offerings, but each will include: arts & crafts, nature walks, outdoor games, “campfires”, sports, and much, much more!

Gibson Ranch Camp

Dates: Tues - Fri, June 27 - 30, 2023

Estimated cost: Day Camp $500
Overnight $650

Cost includes:

Memorable activities, at least two meals a day, all supplies, camp shirt, and staff support

Held at the historic Gibson Ranch in Sac County, Gibson Ranch Camp can be a day camp or an overnight camp. During camp, there will be opportunities to visit the fishing hole, get to know the farm animals on-site, have an outdoor movie night, and much more!

Each morning will have an optional continental-style breakfast and will end with dinner together. There is VERY limited space for campers that may need overnight cabin accommodations, which will include an additional fee, and justification to be considered. However, at this camp, tent camping is welcomed and encouraged to accommodate more people!

Monte Toyon Camp

Dates: Sun - Fri, July 23 - 28, 2023

Estimated Cost: $1,000

Cost includes:

Memorable activities, three meals a day, all supplies, camp shirt, lodging, transportation, and staff support

Monte Toyon is located in Aptos, among coastal redwoods, just south of Santa Cruz, CA. Campers sleep in cabin-style dorms at a beautiful residential camp.

The week at Monte Toyon is chock-full of unique summer camp traditions, as well as a day at a local beach, hiking among the redwoods, eating delicious home-cooked meals, all while escaping the Sacramento heat!

Application Process:

If you are interested in applying to attend Gibson Ranch and/or Monte Toyon, and to receive future communication about plans as they become finalized, please fill out the attached form and send it back as soon as possible.

Please remember that sending in an application does not guarantee acceptance.
